

LM Role Play : "Curfew"

The scenario...

Your 15 year old daughter Helen arrived home at 2 am Sunday morning. She had been out at her friend's 16th birthday party at her parents' home. The phone number Helen had given you did not answer when you called. You were very worried about her and when she came in you told her you had been 'worried sick' and that you would talk to her in the morning.

You do not know

- Helen's ride home didn't work out, a friend offered her a lift home and the car broke down
- Helen made a mistake with the phone number
- Helen's mobile was flat because she had been using the data to stream YouTube videos all night on her friend's TV

Extra information:

You and Helen have agreed that her curfew time is 11 pm.
